6. DISCLOSURES AND SIGNATURES

AUTHORIZATION TO OBTAIN INFORMATION - I AUTHORIZE any medical practitioner, facility, or related entity, insurer, Medical Information Bureau, Inc. (MIB), reporting agency, or employer to give any medical, financial, or personal information about me or my family members to Liberty Life Assurance Company of Boston (the Company), any third party acting on its behalf and its reinsurers. This authorization applies to all types of information, including but not limited to information regarding AIDS, ARC, mental health, and substance abuse. I authorize the Company or its reinsurers to make a brief report of my personal health information to MIB. I AM AWARE that the Company will use this information to determine if I am eligible for insurance or benefits. I am aware that the Company may give this information to its reinsurers, MIB, other persons or entities that perform services related to my application or claim, or as may be authorized or required by law. Information obtained with my authorization may be re-disclosed as permitted or required by law and may no longer be protected by federal privacy laws. I AGREE that this authorization shall be valid for 2 years from the date I sign it. I UNDERSTAND that I have the right to revoke this authorization at any time by written notification to the Company at the address listed on page 1 of this document. I agree that a copy will be as valid as this original. I MAY ASK for a copy of this form. I HAVE READ the Notice of Information Practices and the notices required by the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act and MIB.

Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud or deceive any insurance company files a statement of claim containing any materially false or misleading information is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines, confinement in a state prison, and substantial civil penalties.

The falsity of any statement in this application shall not bar the right to recovery under this policy unless such false statement was made with actual intent to deceive Liberty Life Assurance Company of Boston (the "Company") or unless it materially affected either the acceptance of the risk or the hazard assumed by the Company.

I have read the Evidence of Insurability and declare that all statements and answers given in this application are true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand that the statements and answers will be used by the Company to determine insurability.

NOTICE OF INFORMATION PRACTICES

To properly underwrite and administer your group coverage, we must collect a certain amount of necessary information. Your application is our most important source of information. However, we may collect additional information or verify application information by contacting: doctors of medical facilities which have provided care to you or to members of your family proposed for coverage. Additionally, a brief report may be made to the MIB, Inc., formerly known as the Medical Information Bureau, a not-for-profit membership organization of life insurance companies, which operates an information exchange on behalf of its members. If you apply to another MIB member company for life and health insurance coverage, or a claim for benefits is submitted to such a company, the MIB, upon request, will supply such company with the information in its file.

Upon receipt of a request from you, the MIB will arrange disclosure of any information it may have in your file. If you question the accuracy of information in the MIB's file, you may contact the MIB and seek a correction in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act. The address of the MIB's information office is: 50 Braintree Hill, Suite 400, Braintree, MA 02184-8734, telephone number 1-866-692-6901, TTY 866-346-3642, website address (www.mib.com).

We may also release information to other life insurance companies to whom you may apply for life and health insurance, or to whom a claim for benefits may be submitted.

In addition, we may get an investigative report from a consumer reporting agency. This report may contain information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics and mode of living. You have the right to make a written request to us about the nature and scope of the investigative consumer report. Upon written request you will be told if a report was requested and the name, address and telephone number of the consumer reporting agency preparing the report. You may contact the consumer reporting agency and ask for a copy of the report. Unless a legitimate business need exists or we are required to do so by law, the information we get in this report, as well as any information we acquire, will not be disclosed to third parties without your consent.

You have the right to see and copy items of personal information about you appearing in our files. You also have the right to seek correction, amendment or deletion of any information which you believe to be inaccurate or irrelevant.

You must make written request and allow 30 business days for disclosure of requested information. Our practice is to disclose the requested information to a medical professional designated by you since he/she will be able to best explain the information. In California and Massachusetts, we are able to disclose mental health record information directly to you only with the approval of the qualified professional with treatment responsibility for the condition to which the information relates.

We are not required to give you access to certain types of information. This information is usually collected in connection with a claim under an insurance policy or when the possibility of a lawsuit exists.

If you disagree with our records, you have the right to request a correction, amendment or deletion of any recorded personal information by written request which tells us what is incorrect and why. After we investigate and agree to the inaccuracy, we will proceed with the requested correction, amendment or deletion and notify anyone to whom we had provided the inaccurate information of its correction.

If we disagree, we will give you our reasons for refusing your request. If you are not satisfied, you have the right to send us a concise statement of what you believe is the correct information and why you disagree which we will place in our files, send a copy of to anyone to whom we had previously provided the disclosed information and include with any future disclosure of information from your file.

Under New Mexico law and to the extent we are providing insurance coverage, we are prohibited from using any confidential abuse information, obtained from any source, as a basis for denying, refusing to issue, renew or reissue or canceling or otherwise terminating, restricting or excluding coverage or benefits or charging a higher premium. You have a right to access and correct any confidential abuse information we receive. You may also request a more complete description of your rights. If you would like to be considered a protected person, please contact us at pstprivacy@libertymutual.com or 1-800-344-0197.

Please be assured that Liberty Mutual Insurance is committed to the careful handling of your personal information. If you wish to exercise any of the above rights or have additional questions, please write to the address shown on your application.
